COLOR AND DESIGN

SCOPE

This is a study of the elements and principles of design, which encourages awareness in both creating art products and in experiencing the visual qualities of nature.

SEQUENCE

Unit 1 – The Elements of Design: Line, Color, and Value
1. Identify the function of line
2. Utilize line, color, and value
3. Define line, color, and value
4. Use primary and secondary colors

Unit 2 – The Elements of Design: Space and Form, Space and Texture
1. Distinguish space and form, space and texture
2. Relate facts regarding texture, form, shape, and space
3. Identify shape and form, space and texture
4. List categories of shape and form, space and texture

Unit 3 – The Principles of Design: Balance and Unity
1. Identify balance and unity
2. Use balance and unity

Unit 4 – The Principles of Design: Contrast and Emphasis
1. Observe contrast and unity
2. Use contrast and unity
3. List kinds of contrast
4. Recognize and name unifying elements

Unit 5 – The Principles of Design: Pattern, Movement, and Rhythm
1. Identify pattern, movement, and rhythm
2. Use pattern, movement, and rhythm
3. Distinguish between pattern